

SOAMED Autumn School Processes and Data

Information to prospective participants

This school addresses master students and young PhD students in informatics or related fields, interested in up-to-date research on the integration of service-oriented architectures, data management, and their application to healthcare systems.

The course language is English.

The school takes place at Steinhöfel Castle, D - 15518 Steinhöfel (near Berlin)

Bus service is offered to and from Fürstenwalde/Spree train station

- for arrival on Sunday, Oct. 4th afternoon and Monday, Oct. 5th morning;
- for departure on Friday, Oct. 9th afternoon.

Participation and lodging is free for all accepted participants. Travel is not included.

To apply for the SOMED School,

1. Fill in in the attached application form,
2. Attach a letter of interest, describing your motivation and expectations,
3. Attach a support letter of your supervisor.

Please send all data by e-mail to sekretariat@soamed.de

In addition, send a signed version of the application form by surface mail.

Dates: Applications are due July 1st, 2015

Information of acceptance/rejection: July 10th

Later applications may be successful upon available space.